

Gianni Gagliardo Fallegro Favorita DOC 2016

Fallegro Langhe Bianco DOC is a wine which expresses the true potential of Favorita. It is the producer's only white wine which, for 43 years, has been a significant success. Favorita is the Piedmont version of Vermentino, traditionally grown near the sea, but Gagliardo produces the only version in a continental climate far from the sea. Unique bottle mold with red wax seal and embossed Venetian mask.

Region: Piedmont

Grape Variety: Favorita (Vermentino)

Alcohol: 13%

Production Technique: 10% Malolcatic fermentation, aged initially sur lie then 4 months in stainless steel before bottling.

Characteristics: Bursting with fresh aromas and lively flavors of pear and yellow apples with a delightful citrus-floral finish. Half way between still and sparkling, off dry, this lovely, crisp wine has just a bit of 'frizzante' adding just a tingle of effervescence that dances on the tongue.

Suggestions: As an aperitif, ideal with pate, tarts with butter pastry crust, smoked fish of any kind, caviar, cheese.

Availability: Consignment cases of 12

"In wine, the truth," recites the ancient and well-known Latin proverb.

*Wine brings people together, unites them, wine bares souls, shows the truest and sincerest part of persons, throws off masks through the emotion of an exciting glass.

*Providing a quality time to people... with nothing but a true and restless effort towards excellence:
